Market Review

Portraying India as a reliable sourcing hub for Chemicals & Plastics

Chemicals and Plastics sector is one of the oldest industries that has contributed significantly to the industrial and economic growth of India. The chemical industry accounts for about 13% share in the manufacturing output, around 10% in total exports of the country and around 20% of national revenue by way of various taxes and levies.

The petrochemical industry is relatively a new entrant in the Indian chemical industry, but has registered rapid growth since 1980's. India is among the top five producers of polymers in the world producing about 10 Million Metric Tonnes and poised to double this value by 2020. India has also set up large polymer processing capacities which are on the increase.

Volume of production in chemical industry (which includes petrochemicals/plastics) positions India as third largest producer in Asia (next to China and Japan), and twelfth largest in the world. The industry, comprising both small scale and large units (including MNCs) produces several thousands of products and bi-products, ranging from plastics and petro-chemicals to cosmetics and toiletries. A significant share (around one-third) of production by chemical industry is consumed by itself.

The over US$ seven billion Indian book industry(including publications) is growing at around 20% every year and services over 120 countries.

The Indian Paper Industry accounts for about 2.6% of the world's production of paper and its exports (including paper board & stationery products) have reached US$ 1107 Million during 2014-15.

Over the past few years, the Indian paint market has grown substantially.The exports of Paints, Printing Ink and Allied Products has reached US$ 1090 million during 2014-15.
