16 – 20 October

Flanders, Belgium, is big in terms of food, first of all because of its often very demanding local consumer markets. In response to this demand, specialized Flemish companies offer a wide variety of foodstuffs: from dairy products, chocolates, candy and cookies through meat and meat products, fruit, cereal, rice, sauces, juices and soups, to frozen food, pre-packed meals, beers, bottled waters and health food products. But Flanders also produces high-quality B-to-B-products such as flour, sugar, bakery ingredients and much, much more. Here are the participants from Flanders, Belgium.
