Why Warsaw

Decision centre

Warsaw is a business centre where all decision-makers of the international companies and institutions come to gather and talk

Business focused

Warsaw combines foreign investors with local entrepreneurs: 8 159 new companies started their business in Warsaw only in 2012

Perfectly placed

Situated in the heart of Poland and centre of Europe, Warsaw links business markets of Europe and Asia

City of leaders

Warsaw as a dynamic and fast developing city attracts young and talented people who push the economy forward

FACTS & FIGURES

- Warsaw has the second place in Europe in terms of newly constructed office space that creates an unlimited demand for the building sector
- The total amount of investments in Warsaw for the years 2010-2014 will reach the record number of PLN 12 billion, the main part of this amount will be deployed in the construction sector
- With total resources of 3,6 million sq. meters of office space Warsaw is now the largest market and construction site in the country
- In 2011 the value of the construction market in Poland was estimated to around PLN 190 billion
- The highest share (56.8%) in the new housing stock increase was accounted for private investors that results in a huge demand for interiors finishing products
- 46 459 dwellings were completed (25,7% more than in 2011) in January-April 2012 that causes the demand for interiors and finishing materials in Poland
